

A romantic wedding scene set in a rustic, industrial-style space with white-painted brick walls and large windows. A groom in a grey blazer and a bride in a white dress are embracing; the groom is holding a wide-brimmed hat over his face. The bride holds a bouquet of red flowers. In the background, a large potted cactus sits on a ledge, and a green exit sign is visible on the wall. To the left, a wooden barrel holds a wedding cake decorated with red flowers. The overall mood is warm and intimate.
